
Christ's Parables

BY MARK L. MOELLER

For Christ's parables that spur us
to reflect in fitting ways
on your faithful love and judgment,
God, receive our prayerful praise.
Give us ears to hear these stories,
move us from complacency
with these heralds of your Kingdom,
that both is and is to be.

Tales of treasured coin and lost sheep,
tale of precious son astray,
tales of tenants, slaves, and bridesmaids,
rich young fool who chose his way.
Give us ears to hear their stories,
minds to know what they convey;
with these glimpses of your Kingdom,
teach and nourish us today.

As we gather in your worship,
Father, challenge us anew
to repeat your wondrous story,
calling humankind to you.
May we, quickened by your Spirit,
loved by Jesus Christ your Son,
yield our hearts to live your story
'til your holy Kingdom comes.

Christ's Parables

ATTR. B. F. WHITE

MARK L. MOELLER

ARR. JACK SCHRADER

Unison

1 For Christ's par - a - bles that spur us
 2 Tales of trea - sured coin and lost sheep,
 3 As we ga - ther in your wor - ship,

2
 to re - flect in fitt - ing ways
 tale of pre - cious son a - stray,
 Fa - ther, chall - enge us a - new

4
 on your faith - ful love and judg - ment,
 tales of ten - ants, slaves, and brides - maids,
 to re - peat your won - drous sto - ry,

6
 God, re - ceive our prayer - ful praise.
 rich young fool who chose his way.
 call - ing hum - an - kind to you.

Tune: BEACH SPRING 8.7.8.7.D.

8

Give us ears to hear these sto - ries,
 Give us ears to hear their sto - ries,
 May we, quick - ened by your Spir - it,

10

move us from com - pla - cen - cy
 minds to know what they con - vey;
 loved by Je - sus Christ your Son,

12

with these her - alds of your King - dom,
 with these glimp - ses of your King - dom,
 yield our hearts to live your sto - ry

14

that both is and is to be.
 teach and nour - ish us to - day.
 'til your ho - ly King - dom comes.