JONATHAN SANDS WISE

CHRISTIAN LYRE (1835)

1. Come now bro - thers, come now sis - ters, when will we cease to pre - tend,
 2. Can the hand say to the liv - er, or the eye say to the foot:
 3. And one day when we're in Glo - ry, greet - ing each in - com - ing soul, quit this myth of in - de - pen - dence, and God's teach - ing un - der - stand?

 "What can you re - quire of me? — us, Why must I give help to you?"
 shar - ing in the joy God gives us, know - ing each adds to the whole,

We are all, what - e'er our func - tion, mem - bers of one ho - ly host,
 Oh how fool - ish - ly we strug - gle to live lone - ly lives of worth!
 then we'll grasp what we see dim - ly in our cur - rent mud - dled state:

The image shows a musical score for a hymn. It consists of two staves: a treble clef staff at the top and a bass clef staff at the bottom. The key signature is one flat (B-flat). The melody is written in the treble clef, and the bass line is in the bass clef. The lyrics are written below the treble staff. The lyrics are: "in one God, all are u - ni - ted, Fa - ther, Son, and Ho - ly Ghost. On - ly when we're all u - ni - ted can God's work be done on earth. we're our - selves when we're u - ni - ted, bound to - geth - er by God's grace." The music ends with a double bar line.
